

I feel that Morse Code is a viable form of communication. It should be left as a requirement for obtaining an amateur radio license.